Holy Communion is served by intinction. You are invited to come to the table when ready to receive the elements, and you may remain for prayer as long as you desire. Offerings left at the altar rail are used by the pastor for emergency needs within the community.

Everyone is invited to participate in this Sacrament of Communion. This is God's table and all are welcome.

Our Presence & Service

Members, visitors, friends, all are invited to participate in the various ministries at St. Paul.

The Handbell Revival is in Full Swing! Just in time for the holidays. We have all new faces and a vast variety of skill levels with one goal: To Play Fun, Easy Music that is Recognizable and Entertaining! Some of our new members have never played handbells while others haven't played in 20 years! What a great way to learn and meet new friends! We are practicing on Wednesday nights from 6:45pm-7:45pm and Monday Nights in December at the same time. We will be performing carols at the 10:55am service on Sunday December 10th & 17th, and at the 5:00pm service on Christmas Eve. Everyone is welcome and it is especially helpful if you can read music but it is not required. If you would like to be either a full time or part time ringer, please contact SherriScott1@bellsouth.net or call Sherri at 678-642-7762. "Ring the bells that still can ring. Forget your perfect offering. There is a crack in everything. That's how the light gets in." Leonard Cohen
